Coming in July!!

Ke Anuenue Polynesian Revue
Library Meeting Room
Monday, July 11th
7:00 p.m.

Ke Anuenue Polynesian Revue, Hawaiian for "Rainbow", aptly describes the wide range of vibrant colors presented in the dances, costumes and songs enjoyed by the audiences of this group. They have been performing in Texas and beyond since 1983. The repertoire consists of dances from, Hawaii, Tahiti, New Zealand, Tonga and Samoa are performed in the authentic costume. Bring the family out to enjoy this fascinating and educational performance.

Let's Talk About Books Tuesday, June 7th 1:30pm to 3:15pm

Harry Hall is our guest author this month. Mr. Hall is an accomplished freelance author and public speaking instructor. He is also a contributing editor to Texas Runner & Triathlete, Dallas News writer, and author of Help! Everyone is Staring at Me. He will talk about his current project researching and writing a book on women marathon walkers in the late 1800's.

Let's Talk About Books welcomes anyone interested in reading and discussing a variety of books.
